

ME 300: Engineering Thermodynamics

What is Thermodynamics?

What is thermodynamics?

Thermodynamic: the science that deals with the relationship of heat and mechanical energy (work) and the conversion of one to the other.

Example: Maxime on a bike

What types of energy are present in the picture of Maxime?

Example: Maxime on a bike

